

We won't tell you HERE what CHINCHORRO stands for as you'll surely find out best by yourself ☺

In your hands you are holding a book which has to look for others of its kind. It won't take long to find out it's unique spirit, its sense for details and life. Written and worked out by creative, innovative young people coming from 40 different countries, handling the common topic „What do you believe in?!”

This is a conglomeration of young people's believes and handles all kinds of art, both literature (lyric & prose) as well as fine arts (drawings & paintings) and of course photography.

„Chinchorro is aimed to support young and disenfranchised youth from all over the world. It's ment to make them reflect about their opinions, experiences, dreams, hopes or fears. This project brought them together, gave them the feeling of belonging to a multicultural artistic family and hopefully is a step to fight racism, xenophobia and anti-Semitism in our 'crazy world of today!'”

the founder Bandi Koeck

„This unique book is the result of hard but excellent teamwork. We thank the founders for initiating the project and are proud to be part of the Chinchorro family!”

Frank de Bruin, Euro-Trainings-Centre e.V.
